The present and the future of Transportation

Transforming the movement of goods and people

May 8th - Milan Rho Fair

Pavilion 10 – Green Hall

The transport of goods and people as an engine of growth and sustainability, these are the focuses of the opening conference of Transpotec Logitec and NME - Next Mobility Exhibition, the two events that will be held simultaneously at the Milan Fair from 8 May, and which represent a parallel sector with many challenges and common themes.

Fiera Milano is preparing to become the center of the debate on the future of mobility due to the concomitance of these two important events and offers an opportunity for reflection on the state of the art and the evolution of the transport of goods and people.

By moving people, goods and services, the transport sector plays a crucial role in global economies: the conference aims to analyze the Italian transport industry from an international economic perspective. During the conference, experts, entrepreneurs and representatives of institutions will discuss the methods, processes, technologies and policies to make the future of the transport of goods and people in Italy more ecological, safe, inclusive and efficient.
